SECTION 2 – READING

Questions 16–25 | 1 mark each

Read the passage and answer Questions 16–20.

Every Saturday morning, Aarav visited the small community garden near his apartment. At first, he only watered the plants. Soon, the gardener, Mrs Patel, showed him how to loosen the soil, remove weeds and collect ripe tomatoes. One Saturday, Aarav noticed that a corner of the garden looked dry. Instead of waiting for someone else, he carried two cans of water to the plants. By the end of the morning, the leaves looked fresh again. Mrs Patel smiled and said, “A good gardener notices what needs doing.” Aarav realised that caring for a shared place meant taking responsibility, even for small jobs.
